

Macroeconomics and Financial Management

[ISBN 0-476-01624-X]

CONTENTS

Chapter 1: Introduction

	1
1.1	Overview	1
1.2	The framework of decision making	2
1.3	Plan of the book	4
1.4	Information – the raw material	7
1.5	Web sites (mostly free to air)	9
1.6	Further reading	13

Part I The Macroeconomic Environment

Chapter 2: The national income and product accounts

	17
2.1	Overview	17
2.2	Flow of funds	18
2.3	National income accounting	19
2.4	Income and saving	24
2.5	Income, wealth and capital	27
2.6	Questions for discussion	30
2.7	Further reading	30

Chapter 3: National income, money and inflation in the closed economy

3.1	Overview	33
3.2	Quantities and prices: in equilibrium and out of it	34
3.3	A closer look at modelling: Keynes and the neoclassicals	41
3.4	Output, unemployment and inflation	48
3.5	Money and credit in macroeconomic theory	60
3.6	Effective demand	68
3.7	‘Supply side’ economics and other stories	69
3.8	Questions for discussion	70
3.9	Further reading	71
	Technical note: Neoclassical and Keynesian models in more detail	72

Chapter 4: Open economy macroeconomics

4.1	Overview	79
4.2	The balance of payments	80
4.3	Exchange rate concepts	87
4.4	Introducing the interest rate	93
4.5	Open economy macro models	94
4.6	The long run real exchange rate	103
4.7	Impact effects and the J curve	106
4.8	International crisis: the dark side of the new world order	107
4.9	Theories of international trade and development	111
4.10	Currency unions	114
4.11	Questions for discussion	117
4.12	Further reading	118
	Technical note: The Dornbusch model	120

Chapter 5: Indicators and business cycles	121
5.1 Overview	121
5.2 What is the business cycle and is there one?	122
5.3 Business cycle indicators	124
5.4 The business cycle: index methodology	134
5.5 Lead and lag relationships	142
5.6 The international business cycle	145
5.7 Questions for discussion	146
5.8 Further reading	147
Chapter 6: Macroeconomics in time: shocks, trends and dynamics	149
6.1 Overview	149
6.2 Expectations, risk and uncertainty	150
6.3 Shocks and knocks	157
6.4 Consumption dynamics	162
6.5 Owner occupied housing and the building cycle	169
6.6 The dynamics of physical investment	171
6.7 A down to earth look at shocks	175
6.8 The financial cycle: an overview	176
6.9 Theories of the business cycle	178
6.10 Technology and economic growth	183
6.11 Questions for discussion	185
6.12 Further reading	185
Technical note: Rational expectations dynamics	187
Part II Financial markets and macroeconomics
Chapter 7: Equity investment	197
7.1 Overview	197
7.2 The basic tools of stock valuation	198
7.3 Models of return and required return	204
7.4 Sectoral exposures	213
7.5 Banks and insurance companies	216
7.6 Semi secular influences on equity returns	223
7.7 When is it a bubble?	229
7.8 Technology transversals?	230
7.9 Capital trends: new floats, mergers and acquisitions	236
7.10 International dimensions	238
7.11 Questions for discussion	243
7.12 Further reading	244
Chapter 8: Money market and fixed interest investments	245
8.1 Overview	245
8.2 Investment dimensions of debt	248
8.3 Modelling interest rates	254
8.4 Factor horizons	259
8.5 Credit spreads	273
8.6 Swap spreads	277
8.7 Credit rationing	282
8.8 Fixed interest portfolios	282
8.9 Interest rate dynamics: A case study	284
8.10 Questions for discussion	286
8.11 Further reading	287

